SUNDAY FIRE MAKES HERNANDEZHOMELESS

Canuto Hernandez, living at Sixth and Campbell, is homeless. Firs of an unknown origin Sunday afternoon at 5:30 ociock completely destroyed his home and centents. At the time of the fire Hernandes and his wife were eating supper in the small kitchen adjoining his home, when some one warned him that his house was on fire. By the time it was discovered the fire gained such headway that it was impossible for the central fire department, which responded to the alarm, to save the dwelling.

At the exact hour when the alarm was turned in for the Hernandez fire, an alarm sounded for a fire at 525 South Campbell street, caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove. The fire there did little damage.
